

Wisconsin's No Call list should not be changed to allow bankers to call AFTER services are cancelled. This will severely weaken a protection that our legislature has deemed appropriate for citizens of our state.